Case No: 5:08-CV-01727-JF

Judge: Hon. Jeremy Fogel

1 1. I am an attorney at law, licensed to practice in the State of California and
2 before this Court. I am a partner with the law firm of Foley & Lardner LLP, counsel of
3 record for Stanford Hospital & Clinics and Lucile Packard Children's Hospital
4 (hereinafter collectively "the Hospitals"). I am one of the attorneys with primary
5 responsibility for representing the HOSPITALS in the above-referenced actions (the 6 "Actions"). All of the matters stated within this Declaration are within my personal
7 knowledge, and I am fully competent to testify as to each of these matters if called upon 8 to do so.

9 2. The Court conducted a Case Management Conference on April 25, 2008
10 during which proceeding the Court [a] permitted the Hospitals to conduct discovery
11 regarding the existence of Service Employees International Union, Local 715 ("SEIU,
12 Local 715"), its representative capacity and the use of its resources and [b] set the hearing
13 and filing dates for dispositive motions. The deadline to file dispositive motions was set
14 for July 18, 2008. A true and correct copy of the transcript of that Case Management
15 Conference is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

16 3. On June 13, 2008, a Notice of Deposition of Bruce W. Smith for his 17 deposition set for June 26, 2008, was served to counsel of record for Petitioner and 18 Counter-Respondent, SEIU, Local 715. A true and correct copy of this Notice of 19 Deposition is hereto attached as Exhibits B-G. The deposition date was specifically
20 scheduled to take place after SEIU, Local 715 produced documents pursuant to a Request
21 for Production of Documents served by the Hospitals earlier.

22 4. On June 13, 2008, a Notice of Deposition of Myriam Escamilla for her
23 deposition set for July 2, 2008, was served to counsel of record for Petitioner and
24 Counter-Respondent. A true and correct copy of this Notice of Deposition is hereto
25 attached as Exhibits H-M. Again, the deposition date was specifically scheduled to take 26 place after SEIU, Local 715 produced documents pursuant to a Request for Production of 27 Documents served by the Hospitals earlier.

1 5. Nationwide Legal, Inc. attempted to serve the deposition subpoena on Ms.
2 Escamilla on several occasions, but were unsuccessful due to Ms. Escamilla purposefully
3 evading service. Specifically, while attempting to serve Ms. Escamilla with the
4 deposition subpoena, a process server spoke with Ms. Escamilla by telephone on June 17,
5 2008 at 8:15 a.m. and made an appointment for Ms. Escamilla to accept service on the
6 morning of June 18, 2008 at her home. On the date of the appointment, June 18, 2008 at 7 8:45 a.m., Ms. Escamilla informed the process server that she would not accept service.
8 On the following two days, June 19 and 20, 2008, the process server attempted to serve
9 Ms. Escamilla at her workplace. However, two separate receptionists notified the process
10 server that he could leave the subpoena in a drop box but that no name of the person
11 accepting service would be provided. Ms. Escamilla refused to accept service at her
12 workplace. The process server again attempted to serve Ms. Escamilla at her home on 13 June 21 and 22, 2008, but no one would answer the door even though he could hear
14 voices inside Ms. Escamilla's apartment. Attached hereto as Exhibits N-S are true and 15 correct copies of the Declarations of Ismael Velasco and Carlos Castro dated June 25, 16 2008 regarding attempted service of Ms. Escamilla. Attached hereto as Exhibits T-Y are 17 true and correct copies of the Deposition Subpoena for Ms. Escamilla.

18 6. On June 13, 2008, a Notice of Deposition of Kristy Sermersheim for her
19 deposition set for July 1, 2008, was served to counsel of record for Petitioner and
20 Counter-Respondent. A true and correct copy of this Notice of Deposition is hereto
21 attached as Exhibits Z-EE. Once again, the deposition date was specifically scheduled to 22 take place after SEIU, Local 715 and other union entities were to produce documents
23 pursuant to a Request for Production of Documents and/or subpoena served by the 24 Hospitals earlier. On June 16, 2008, Ms. Sermersheim was served with the deposition
25 subpoena. A true and correct copy of this Deposition Subpoena is hereto attached as 26 Exhibits FF-KK.

1 7. On June 23, 2008, I received a letter from Bruce Harland. In that letter, Mr.
2 Harland inquired as to whether Mr. Smith and Ms. Escamilla were subpoenaed as non-
3 parties for deposition. Mr. Harland further wrote that if he was correct that Mr. Smith
4 and Ms. Escamilla were non-parties, then he objected to the subpoenas on the basis that
5 they were an effort to harass both Mr. Smith and Ms. Escamilla. Mr. Harland further
6 notified me that Mr. Smith and Ms. Escamilla were not available for the dates noticed. A
7 true and correct copy of this letter dated June 23, 2008 is hereto attached as Exhibit LL.

8 8. On the same day, June 23, 2008, I sent a letter to Mr. Harland in response
9 to his letter. In my letter, I clarified that Mr. Smith was served as a party since he acted
10 as the trustee for SEIU, Local 715. I also notified Mr. Harland that Ms. Escamilla has 11 repeatedly evaded service of a subpoena, and requested Mr. Harland's office whether it
12 was authorized to accept service on Ms. Escamilla's behalf. My letter also clarified the 13 purpose for the depositions of Mr. Smith and Ms. Escamilla. A true and correct copy of 14 this letter dated June 23, 2008 is hereto attached as Exhibit MM.

15 9. On June 25, 2008, I emailed Mr. Harland regarding the depositions of Mr.
16 Smith and Ms. Escamilla. In my email, I specifically requested alternative dates for Mr.
17 Smith and Ms. Escamilla, particularly in light of the July 18th deadline to file dispositive
18 motions. A true and correct copy of this email is hereto attached as Exhibit NN.

19 10. On June 27, 2008, Scott Inciardi of my office received a letter from Andrea
20 Laiacona. In that letter, Ms. Laiacona notified Mr. Inciardi that Kristy Sermersheim was 21 not available for deposition on July 1, 2008. Ms. Laiacona further requested that Mr.
22 Inciardi contact her to "discuss possible dates and to discuss the necessity of taking Ms.
23 Sermersheim's deposition." In her letter, Ms. Laiacona further stated that she did not 24 believe that Ms. Sermersheim has any relevant information and indicated that she would 25 file a motion to quash the subpoena if the Hospitals proceeded with scheduling Ms.
26 Sermersheim's deposition. A true and correct copy of this letter dated June 26, 2008 is 27 hereto attached as Exhibit OO.

1 11. On June 30, 2008, Mr. Inciardi responded to Ms. Laiacona's letter of June
2 26. In his response, Mr. Inciardi explained the necessity of the deposition of Ms.
3 Sermersheim and requested that available dates be provided. To date, my office has not
4 received a response to Mr. Inciardi's letter. A true and correct copy of this letter dated
5 June 30, 2008 is hereto attached as Exhibit PP.

6 12. On June 27, 2008, I received a letter from Andrea Laiacona stating her
7 position on behalf of Local 521. In her letter, Ms. Laiacona (incorrectly) alleged that I
8 had already expressly acknowledged that Local 715 exists, and that my client's request
9 for discovery "[was] an abuse of process, burdensome, harassing and unnecessary and ...
10 points to the bad faith [my] client [was] engaging in ...maintaining this litigation." A
11 true and correct copy of this letter is hereto attached as Exhibit QQ.

12 13. On Friday, June 27, 2008, because I had not received a response to my 13 email of June 25, 2008, I emailed Mr. Harland to follow-up to my prior email. Mr.
14 Harland responded on June 30, 2008, and notified me that he would be available to speak
15 with me on July 1, 2008. A true and correct copy of these emails are hereto attached as 16 Exhibit RR.

17 14. On July 1, 2008, I had not heard from Mr. Harland despite his 18 representation that he would be available to meet and confer. I emailed Mr. Harland
19 requesting a response from him regarding the pending discovery issues. On July 1, 2008
20 after 5:00 p.m., Mr. Harland responded to my email. In his email, Mr. Harland refused to 21 stipulate to continue the July 18, 2008 filing date for dispositive motions. Mr. Harland
22 further refused to offer deposition dates for Ms. Escamilla and offered the deposition
23 dates of July 14, 15, 16, 17, 2008 for the deposition of Mr. Smith. I responded to Mr.
24 Harland's email via email at 9:12 p.m. on that same day. In my email, I refuted Mr.
25 Harland's contentions regarding the necessity of the discovery propounded by my clients.
26 On July 2, 2008, at 7:12 p.m., I received an email from Mr. Harland notifying me that he
27 was available on July 3 to meet and confer. In that email, Mr. Harland also proposed that 28

1 we meet and confer after he has had an opportunity to address our meet and confer letter
2 of July 1, 2008. I responded to Mr. Harland's email on July 3, 2008, proposing dates for
3 a telephone conference on either July 7 or 8. A true and correct copy of these emails are 4 hereto attached as Exhibit SS.

5 15. On July 9, 2008, I met and conferred with Mr. Harland regarding
6 outstanding discovery issues, including setting dates for depositions. In that
7 conversation, I told Mr. Harland that it was necessary first to obtain all responsive
8 documents to the pending discovery requests (including the request for production from 9 SEIU, Local 715) in order to complete the depositions. I outlined the Hospitals' position
10 with respect to outstanding discovery issues in an email to Mr. Harland dated July 9,
11 2008. A true and correct copy of this email is hereto attached as Exhibit TT.

12 16. Prior to the filing of this motion to compel, I made a reasonable and good 13 faith attempt to resolve the disputed response raised by this motion with counsel for 14 Plaintiffs as reflected in Exhibits LL-TT attached hereto. The attempts to meet and 15 confer were not successful.

16 17. I have reviewed the time entries on this matter and am familiar with the 17 billable rates of the attorneys work on the Actions. The Hospitals estimate that they have 18 expended and/or will expend (including any appearance at the hearing of this motion) a
19 total of approximately $10,000 in bringing this motion.

20 18. I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of 21 America that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed this eleventh day of July 2008
22 in San Francisco, California.

3 (WHEREUPON, COURT CONVENED AND THE
4 FOLLOWING PROCEEDINGS WERE HELD:)

5 THE COURT: ALL OF THE SEIU, WHICH I
6 BELIEVE ALL HAVE THE SAME NAME. SEIU VERSUS
7 STANFORD HOSPITAL AND CLINICS.

8 MR. HARLAND: GOOD MORNING, YOUR HONOR.
9 BRUCE HARLAND FOR SEIU LOCAL 715.

10 MS. RIDLEY: GOOD MORNING, YOUR HONOR.
11 EILEEN RIDLEY, FOLEY AND LARDNER, ON BEHALF OF 12 STANFORD HOSPITAL AND LUCILE PACKARD CHILDREN'S 13 HOSPITAL.

14 THE COURT: OKAY. WE ACTUALLY HAVE A
15 COUPLE OF DIFFERENT THINGS GOING ON. I DID RELATE
16 ALL THE CASES AND THERE SHOULD BE NO
17 MISUNDERSTANDING. I DIDN'T CONSOLIDATE ANYTHING.
18 I'M TREATING THEM AS SEPARATE CASES, BUT I
19 CONCLUDED THERE IS ENOUGH OF AN OVERLAP AMONG THE
20 DISPUTES THAT IT WOULD BE APPROPRIATE FOR ONE JUDGE
21 TO HANDLE THEM.

22 I GUESS MY QUESTION IS WHETHER WE ARE IN
23 A POSITION TO SET ANY TYPE OF SCHEDULE OR WHETHER 24 WE SHOULD TRY TO GET EVERYONE TOGETHER FOR A SINGLE 25 ADR PROCEDURE OR WHAT THE APPROPRIATE NEXT MOVE IS

1 AT THIS POINT.

2 MR. HARLAND: YOUR HONOR, THIS IS
3 BRUCE HARLAND. I DON'T THINK ANY ADR IS GOING TO 4 BE HELPFUL IN THIS SITUATION.

5 WHAT I WOULD PROPOSE IN THE RELATED CASE,
6 051 -- OR, 5158 -- WE AGREED AT THE LAST CASE
7 MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE TO FILE A DISPOSITIVE MOTION
8 IN THAT MATTER BY JUNE 20TH.

9 THE COURT: OKAY.

10 MR. HARLAND: AND THAT'S A PETITION TO
11 VACATE FILED BY STANFORD HOSPITAL. 213, BEFORE YOU
12 TODAY, IS A PETITION, PART OF AN ARBITRATION AWARD,
13 WHICH IN THE UNION'S OPINION IS JUST A STRAIGHT
14 LEGAL ISSUE. I WOULD PROPOSE HAVING 505 ON JUNE
15 20TH.

16 THE COURT: BASICALLY JUST SET A MOTIONS
17 DATE FOR ANY MOTIONS ANYONE WANTS TO FILE IN ANY OF 18 THE RELATED CASES?

19 MR. HARLAND: YEAH. BEFORE JUNE 20TH. I
20 DON'T THINK THERE'S ANY NEED IN THESE CASES,
21 BECAUSE THERE'S JUST A PURE LEGAL ISSUE, ANY NEED
22 TO DO DISCOVERY.

23 THE COURT: OKAY. I SEE COUNSEL SHAKING
24 HER HEAD, SO PERHAPS I SHOULD HERE FROM HER.

25 MS. RIDLEY: A COUPLE OF POINTS WITH

1 REGARD TO THAT.

2 ONE, THE CASES MOST RECENTLY RELATED,
3 WE'VE NOT EVEN APPEARED YET, AND WE THINK THEY ARE
4 SURFACE ISSUES WITH REGARD TO THOSE. THE SURFACE
5 ISSUES CAN BE RESOLVED MUCH LIKE THE OTHER ISSUES
6 BUT THEY ARE IN A DIFFERENT STATUS.

7 SECOND, THERE'S DIFFERENT ISSUES FROM THE
8 CASE -- THE FIRST FILED CASE FROM THE RELATED CASES
9 THAN THE OTHERS AS WE'VE DISCUSSED, BUT ONE OF THE 10 MORE IMPORTANT ISSUES IS THE STATUS OF LOCAL 715,
11 THE ISSUES OF RESOURCES, AND THE REPRESENTATIVE
12 CAPACITY. THOSE HAVE TO BE SUBJECT TO SOME
13 DISCOVERY WHICH WE BELIEVE HAS TO BE DONE. AND
14 GIVEN THE JUNE 20TH DATE, I DON'T KNOW WE HAVE 15 ENOUGH TIME.

16 THERE ARE SIGNIFICANT ISSUES WITH REGARD
17 TO WHAT'S GOING ON WITH REGARD TO WHO IS 18 REPRESENTING THAT LOCAL, WHETHER IT EXISTS, AND 19 WHETHER RESOURCES HAVE BEEN SENT.

20 THE COURT: HOW QUICKLY WILL IT TAKE TO 21 DO THAT?

22 MS. RIDLEY: I ANTICIPATE, WITH REGARD TO
23 DISCOVERY, IS SOME DOCUMENT PRODUCTION, POSSIBLE
24 REQUEST AND A POSSIBLE DEPOSITIONS.

25 THE ISSUE REALLY GOES TO A VERY DISCREET

1 CONCERN WITH REGARD TO THE RESOURCES AND
2 REPRESENTATION.

3 THE COURT: RIGHT, WHO ARE YOU DEALING 4 WITH.

5 LET ME GET COUNSEL TO RESPOND.

6 MR. HARLAND?

7 MR. HARLAND: SURE. I THINK IT WILL
8 TAKE -- IT WILL BE SIGNIFICANT DISCOVERY BASED ON 9 THE PAST RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE PARTIES.

10 NUMBER TWO, I DON'T THINK YOU NEED ANY OF
11 THAT INFORMATION, OR THEY NEED ANY OF THAT 12 INFORMATION TO ARGUE A PETITION TO CONFIRM AN
13 ARBITRATION AWARD OR EVEN A PETITION TO COMPEL
14 ARBITRATION.

15 THE COURT: YOU'RE SAYING WE CAN SET THE
16 MOTION SCHEDULES ON THE ARBITRATION CASES QUICKLY,
17 AND THEN THE OTHER MATTER HAVING TO DO WITH WHO IS
18 BARGAINING WITH WHOM CAN BE WORKED OUT IN A SLOWER
19 TIME FRAME.

20 MR. HARLAND: WHAT I WOULD SUGGEST IS WE
21 BE ALLOWED TO BRING THE MOTION BY JUNE 20TH BY ALL
22 THE CASES EXCEPT FOR THE TWO THAT HAVE JUST BEEN
23 RELATED. I GUESS --

24 THE COURT: ALL RIGHT. LET ME HEAR FROM 25 STANFORD AS TO WHY THAT'S NOT APPROPRIATE.

1 MS. RIDLEY: THEY ARE TRYING TO COMPEL AN
2 ARBITRATION BASED ON AN ENTITY AND A SERVICING
3 AGREEMENT THAT WE'VE REJECTED, WITH REGARD TO 4 COUNSEL, WHO HASN'T CLARIFIED WHO THEY ARE 5 REPRESENTING, AN ENTITY THAT MAY NOT IN FACT EXIST.

6 THE COURT: WOULD ANY OF THAT GO TO THE
7 ENFORCEABILITY OR THE LEGALITY OF THE ARBITRATION
8 AWARDS IN QUESTION?

9 MS. RIDLEY: YES, YOUR HONOR. AND WE
10 THINK THAT'S ONE OF THE ISSUES INCLUDING -- FOR 11 INSTANCE, IN THE FIRST CASE THAT EVERYTHING IS 12 RELATED TO, DEALING WITH WHETHER OR NOT THE 13 ARBITRATOR IN THAT CASE WENT BEYOND HIS POWERS TO 14 DETERMINE CERTAIN ISSUES.

15 THE COURT: OKAY.

16 MR. HARLAND: AND THAT'S JUST THE PURE
17 LEGAL ISSUE BECAUSE IT'S A MATTER THAT WAS 18 SUBMITTED TO THE ARBITRATOR WHICH HE EITHER WENT
19 BEYOND THAT ISSUE OR HE DIDN'T GO BEYOND THAT
20 ISSUE. IF HE DIDN'T GO BEYOND THE ISSUES SUBMITTED
21 TO HIM --

22 THE COURT: LET ME JUST HYPOTHETICALLY
23 SUGGEST SOMETHING AND GET A RESPONSE.

24 WITHIN THE FOUR CORNERS OF THE
25 ARBITRATION AWARD, THERE'S NO QUESTION THAT WHAT

1 MR. HARLAND JUST SAID IS CORRECT. THE COURT LOOKS
2 AT THE ARBITRATION AWARD, AND IS THERE AN AGREEMENT
3 TO ARBITRATE, AND IS THE AWARD NOT COMPLETELY OFF
4 THE ENDS OF THE EARTH, AND SOMETIMES EVEN THOSE ARE
5 OKAY. AND YOU JUST EITHER DECIDE TO CONFIRM IT OR 6 NOT.

7 BUT IN TERMS OF THE ENFORCEABILITY OF THE 8 ARBITRATION AWARD, THAT'S A DIFFERENT QUESTION.
9 IF THE ARBITRATION INVOLVED PEOPLE WHO WERE NOT 10 PARTIES TO THE ARBITRATION AGREEMENT, FOR INSTANCE,
11 THEN IT DOESN'T MATTER HOW GREAT A JOB THE
12 ARBITRATOR DID IF THERE'S NOTHING TO ENFORCE. SO
13 THOSE ARE SEPARATE QUESTIONS.

14 AND I GUESS I WANT TO TRY TO GET AN
15 INDICATION -- IS IT THE UNION'S POSITION THAT THE 16 COURT SHOULD ADJUDICATE WHETHER THE AWARD SHOULD BE 17 CONFIRMED OR NOT CONFIRMED JUST BASED ON 18 TRADITIONAL ARBITRATION PRINCIPLES, AND THEN LEAVE
19 FOR ANOTHER DAY THE QUESTION OF WHETHER AT LEAST
20 ONE PARTY TO THAT ARBITRATION ACTUALLY HAD STANDING
21 TO PARTICIPATE IN IT, WHICH IS WHAT I THINK I HEAR
22 COUNSEL SUGGESTING.

23 MR. HARLAND: I THINK YOU CAN RESOLVE --
24 I DON'T THINK YOU HAVE TO EVEN GET TO THE SECOND
25 ISSUE, BUT I THINK YOU CAN RESOLVE BOTH OF THOSE

1 ISSUES IN ONE MOTION WITHOUT ANY DISCOVERY.

2 THE COURT: BUT HOW DO YOU -- I'M SORRY
3 TO INTERRUPT YOU -- BUT HOW DO YOU RESOLVE AN ISSUE
4 SUCH AS REPRESENTATION WITHOUT GETTING INTO SOME 5 TYPE OF FACTUAL INQUIRY?

6 MR. HARLAND: WELL, FIRST, THE COURT DOES
7 NOT HAVE JURISDICTION OVER THE REPRESENTATIONAL
8 STATUS OF THE UNION, THAT'S THE NLRB'S
9 JURISDICTION, SO THAT'S JUST A PURE LEGAL ISSUE
10 THERE.

11 THE COURT IS ONLY, AS YOU SAID, LOOKING
12 AT THE CONTRACT, LOOKING AT THE ARBITRATION AND
13 DETERMINING WHETHER OR NOT THE ARBITRATOR ISSUED
14 THE ARBITRATION AWARD BY DRAWING THE ESSENCE OF THE
15 AWARD FROM THE CONTRACT OR, YOU KNOW, WHETHER OR 16 NOT HE VIOLATED POLICY. YOU ARE REALLY LOOKING 17 ONLY AT LIMITED THINGS.

18 THE REPRESENTATIONAL STATUS OF THE UNION,
19 IS NOT AN ISSUE BEFORE THIS COURT AND THE COURT
20 DOESN'T HAVE ANY JURISDICTION.

21 THE COURT: BUT WHY WOULD THE COURT WANT
22 TO SPEND THE TIME EVALUATING THE ENFORCEABILITY OF
23 AN ARBITRATION AWARD IF ULTIMATELY THE PARTIES WHO 24 ARE SEEKING ENFORCEMENT DON'T HAVE STANDING?

25 IN OTHER WORDS, I UNDERSTAND YOUR POINT,

1 THE COURT CAN LOOK AT THE AWARD WITHOUT EVEN
2 LOOKING AT THE ISSUE OF REPRESENTATIONAL STATUS,
3 BUT WHY WOULD THE COURT DO THAT AS A MATTER OF
4 JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION IF THERE'S GOING TO BE A
5 FIGHT ABOUT THAT LATER?

6 MR. HARLAND: WELL, AGAIN, I THINK YOU
7 CAN DO ALL OF THAT WITHOUT ANY DISCOVERY.

8 I MEAN, FOR EXAMPLE, THE WHOLE THING THAT
9 TICKED US OFF WAS A PETITION TO VACATE FILES BY 10 STANFORD. THEY SAY THEY DON'T THINK EXISTS -- OR
11 THEY HAVE DOUBTS THAT EXISTS. THERE IS -- I DON'T
12 KNOW HOW ELSE TO ANSWER THE QUESTION OTHER THAN I
13 DON'T THINK ANY DISCOVERY IS NECESSARY IN TERMS OF
14 THE UNION. BUT THE COURT COULD CONFIRM THE
15 ARBITRATION AWARD AND THEN ENFORCE IT, AT THAT 16 POINT, DETERMINE IF THE UNION HAD ANY STANDING OR 17 NOT.

18 THE COURT: WHY WOULD -- IF IT'S NOT
19 ENFORCEABLE -- AND I DON'T MEAN TO GET INTO A
20 HYPOTHETICAL ARGUMENT. BUT IF IT'S NOT ENFORCEABLE
21 BECAUSE IT WASN'T OBTAINED BY A PARTY WITH 22 STANDING, WHY WOULD THE COURT WANT TO INVEST THE 23 RESOURCES DECIDING WHETHER IT'S ENFORCEABLE OR NOT?

24 MR. HARLAND: IN TERMS OF WHO HAS
25 STANDING, THE ONLY PARTY THAT HAS STANDING IS THE

1 PARTY TO THE CONTRACT.

2 THE COURT: RIGHT.

3 MR. HARLAND: AND AGAIN, THIS IS A LEGAL
4 ISSUE IN TERMS OF WHO THE PARTIES HAVE AS THEIR 5 ADVOCATE AT THE ARBITRATION.

6 THE COURT: I'M NOT SURE THAT'S TRUE,
7 COUNSEL.

8 AND AGAIN, I'M NOT TRYING EXERCISE
9 JURISDICTION OVER SOMETHING I DON'T HAVE
10 JURISDICTION OVER. BUT SAY THERE'S A CONTRACT
11 BETWEEN A AND B, AND Z SHOWS UP AT THE ARBITRATION
12 AND SAYS, I'M A.

13 MR. HARLAND: THAT'S NOT THE SITUATION WE
14 ARE DEALING WITH. WHAT WE ARE DEALING WITH IS THE
15 CONTRACTS BETWEEN A AND B. B SHOWS UP TO THE 16 ARBITRATION AND THE ATTORNEY FOR B SAYS, I'M 17 APPEARING ON BEHALF OF B.

18 COUNSEL FOR THE HOSPITALS ARE SAYING THAT 19 THEY QUESTION WHETHER OR NOT OUR FIRM ACTUALLY 20 REPRESENTS B DIRECTLY.

21 THAT'S NOT A STANDING ISSUE, THAT'S A
22 QUESTION OF ATTORNEY-CLIENT PRIVILEGE.

23 THE COURT: IN MY HYPOTHETICAL, THOUGH,
24 YOU HAVE A PARTY WHO WASN'T WHO THEY SAID THEY WERE
25 PARTICIPATING IN THE ARBITRATION, AND THEN YOU GET

1 AN ADJUDICATION WHICH IS A RESULT OF THE POSITIONS
2 TAKEN BY THAT PARTY AND IT TURNS OUT THE ACTUAL
3 PARTY WASN'T THERE. THAT GOES TO THE QUESTION OF
4 WHETHER THE ARBITRATION AWARD HAS ANY VALIDITY.

5 THAT'S WHAT I UNDERSTAND THE ARGUMENT TO
6 BE. I'M NOT -- I HAVE NO IDEA WHETHER THERE'S ANY 7 TRUTH TO IT, BUT IT'S MORE THAN A QUESTION OF WHO 8 THE LAWYER IS.

9 WHAT I GATHER FROM THE VARIOUS PAPERS
10 I'VE SEEN OVER THE LAST SEVERAL DAYS IS THAT
11 THERE'S A DISPUTE AS TO WHETHER A LOCAL 715
12 REPRESENTS THE PEOPLE WHO IT PURPORTS TO REPRESENT.

13 MR. HARLAND: BUT THAT IS AN ISSUE
14 ENTIRELY BEFORE THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF 15 THE --

16 THE COURT: RIGHT. IT IS. AND I'M NOT 17 PURPORTING TO DECIDE THAT.

18 BUT WHAT I'M SAYING IS BEFORE I ENTERTAIN
19 A PETITION TO VACATE OR ENFORCE AN ARBITRATION
20 AWARD, I HAVE TO MAKE SURE THAT THE WHOLE THING
21 ISN'T GOING TO GET UNDERCUT BY AN ORDER FROM THE
22 NLRB COMING OUT AT SOME FUTURE POINT IN TIME
23 SAYING, ACTUALLY, THE PEOPLE WHO WERE THERE HAD NO
24 RIGHT TO BE THERE.

25 THIS IS A RESOURCE QUESTION FOR ME. I

1 THINK WHAT YOU SAID IS ABSOLUTELY RIGHT. THE COURT
2 CAN LOOK AT THE ARBITRATION AWARD AND DECIDE
3 WHETHER IT MAKES SENSE, IN TERMS OF THE SCOPE OF
4 THE ARBITRATION AGREEMENT, WITHOUT REVOLVING THE
5 STANDING ISSUE AT ALL. I'M JUST TRYING TO DECIDE
6 WHETHER IT'S A PRUDENT THING TO DO.

7 WHY SHOULD THE COURT GO THROUGH
8 LITIGATING ALL OF THAT IF THERE'S A POSSIBILITY IT
9 MAY NOT MEAN ANYTHING?

10 MR. HARLAND: YOU COULD SAY THAT IN ANY
11 PETITION TO COMPEL, OR PETITION TO CONFIRM, OR 12 PETITION TO VACATE AT ANY POINT, AND IT GIVES A
13 COLLECTIVE BARGAINING RELATIONSHIP.

14 THE EMPLOYER CAN SAY, WE DON'T THINK THE 15 UNION REPRESENTS WHO THEY PURPORT TO REPRESENT.
16 BUT THE QUESTION IS: AT THE HEARING, THE PARTIES
17 SHOWED UP; THE UNION ENTERED AN APPEARANCE ON
18 BEHALF OF LOCAL 715; A REPRESENTATIVE WHO WAS A
19 TRUSTEE OF 715 APPEARED.

20 THERE'S NO ISSUE OTHER THAN THAT. THE
21 UNION IS JUST SEEKING TO ENFORCE THE AWARD THAT 22 THEY RECEIVED AS A PROPOSED AGREEMENT.

23 THE COURT: LET ME JUST ASK COUNSEL.

24 IS THERE ANY REASON WHY THE COURT CAN'T
25 LOOK AT THE MERITS OF THE ARBITRATION AWARD?

1 MS. RIDLEY: YES, BECAUSE ONE OF THE
2 THINGS THE ARBITRATOR DID WAS DETERMINE THE ISSUE
3 OF REPRESENTATION AND STANDING. EVEN THOUGH DURING
4 THE PROCEEDING THE ARBITRATOR SAID THAT'S NOT THEIR
5 JURISDICTION, THEY ACTUALLY MADE THAT DECISION.
6 AND THAT IS, ORGANICALLY, ONE OF THE PROBLEMS THAT
7 GOES BEYOND WHETHER OR NOT YOU CAN CONFIRM THE
8 ARBITRATION AWARD BUT ALSO IT'S ENFORCEABILITY.

9 THE COURT: SO WHAT CAN WE DO TO EXPEDITE
10 THE DISCOVERY ON THIS STANDING ISSUE?

11 MS. RIDLEY: WE ARE PREPARED TO ISSUE THE
12 REQUESTS, TO IDENTIFY, YOU KNOW, THE DEPOSITIONS
13 THAT WE NEED WITH REGARD TO IT ONCE WE GET THE
14 DOCUMENTS WE THINK ARE RELEVANT TO FAIRLY NARROW
15 THE ISSUE WE ARE RAISING HERE.

16 THE COURT: COUNSEL, IS THERE SOME REASON
17 WHY THAT CAN'T BE DONE QUICKLY?

18 MR. HARLAND: ARE YOU ASKING ME?

19 THE COURT: YES, COUNSEL. I AM.

20 MR. HARLAND: I MEAN, I HOPE IT COULD BE
21 DONE QUICKLY. I DOUBT THAT IT WILL BE, BUT I HOPE
22 THAT IT COULD BE DONE QUICKLY.

23 THE COURT: WELL, IT'S IN EVERYBODY'S
24 INTEREST.

25 ALL RIGHT, HERE'S WHAT I'M GOING TO DO.

1 AND THIS IS NECESSARILY BASED ON IMPRESSIONS RATHER
2 THAN HAVING POURED THROUGH HUNDREDS OF PAGES OF
3 DOCUMENTS. BUT I THINK DISCOVERY SHOULD PROCEED ON 4 THIS ISSUE BECAUSE IT'S GOING ON ARISE AT SOME 5 POINT.

6 AND THE COURT IS NOT PURPORTING TO
7 EXERCISE JURISDICTION OVER SOMETHING THAT THE NLRB
8 HAS EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OVER, BUT ONLY TO AID
9 THE RESOLUTIONS OF THE MOTIONS IT'S GOING TO HEAR.

10 AND I WILL MOVE THE FILING DATE FOR THE
11 PETITION TO VACATE IN THE PETITION TO COMPEL. I
12 WILL MOVE THEM BACK 30 DAYS, SO WE WILL MOVE TO 13 JULY 18TH IN LIEU OF THE JUNE 20TH DATE. AND
14 DISCOVERY IS TO PROCEED, AND IF THERE'S PROBLEMS
15 WITH THAT, THEY ARE REFERRED TO MAGISTRATE
16 JUDGE SEEBORG.

17 THEN THE HEARING DATE ON THE
18 CROSS-MOTIONS WITH RESPECT TO THE ARBITRATION AWARD
19 WOULD BE AUGUST 29TH. AND I THINK THAT MAYBE -- I
20 THINK THAT WORKS. AUGUST 20TH AT 9:00.

21 MR. HARLAND: OKAY. SO IF I HAVE IT
22 CORRECT, YOUR HONOR, BY JULY 18TH, 2008, DISCOVERY
23 SHOULD BE COMPLETED, ARE YOU SAYING?

24 THE COURT: I'M SAYING THAT'S WHEN THE 25 MOTIONS SHOULD BE FILED.

1 MR. HARLAND: OKAY.

2 THE COURT: DISCOVERY IS GOING TO HAVE TO
3 GET DONE BEFORE THAT. I'M LEAVING THAT TO THE
4 PARTIES. AND I REALIZE THIS IS AN ACRIMONIOUS
5 RELATIONSHIP, AND I EXPECT COUNSEL TO COOPERATE AND
6 USE ALL THE PROFESSIONAL COURTESIES THAT THEY CAN 7 TO GET IT DONE SO THAT MOTIONS CAN BE FILED ON 8 JULY 18TH.

9 AND THEN WE WILL HAVE A HEARING ON THE
10 CROSS-MOTIONS, WITH RESPECT TO THE ARBITRATION
11 AWARD, ON AUGUST 29TH.

12 MS. RIDLEY: AND I WOULD --

13 MR. HARLAND: FOR BOTH OF THEM?

14 THE COURT: FOR BOTH OF THEM, YES.
15 THAT'S WHAT I MEAN BY CROSS-MOTIONS.

16 MS. RIDLEY: AND JUST SO I'M CLEAR, THE 17 MOTIONS IN THE FIRST FILED CASE, JUST TO BE CLEAR.

18 THE COURT: YES.

19 MS. RIDLEY: AND THERE'S NO GENERAL ORDER
20 ABOUT THE CLOSURE OF DISCOVERY FOR ALL THE RELATED?

21 THE COURT: NO, NO. AND THERE'S ONLY ONE
22 ARBITRATION AWARD, RIGHT?

23 MS. RIDLEY: RIGHT.

24 THE COURT: AND ONE PARTY WANTS TO 25 ENFORCE IT AND THE OTHER ONE WANTS TO VACATE IT.

1 MR. HARLAND: ACTUALLY, THERE'S TWO.
2 THERE'S AN ARBITRATION AWARD IN 5158 WHICH THE
3 HOSPITAL IS SEEKING TO VACATE.

4 THE COURT: OKAY. AND THEN THERE IS ONE
5 THE UNION IS SEEKING TO ENFORCE.

6 MR. HARLAND: YES.

7 THE COURT: I WANT TO KEEP ALL OF THIS --
8 AS FAR AS I'M CONCERNED, THIS IS ONE TROUBLED
9 RELATIONSHIP.

10 THAT'S THE WAY I'M LOOKING AT IT. I'M
11 TRYING TO LOOK AT IT WITH A BIG PICTURE RATHER THAN 12 BREAK IT UP INTO CONSTITUENT PARTS BECAUSE IT WILL 13 DRIVE ME NUTS IF I DO THAT.

14 SO THANK YOU VERY MUCH.

15 MS. RIDLEY: THANK YOU, YOUR HONOR.

16 (WHEREUPON, THE PROCEEDINGS IN THIS
17 MATTER WERE CONCLUDED.)

☒ BY THE FOLLOWING MEANS:

I placed a true copy thereof enclosed in sealed envelope(s) addressed as follows:

William Sokol, Esq.
W. Daniel Boone, Esq.
Bruce A. Harland, Esq.
Weinberg, Roger & Rosenfeld
1001 Marina Village Pkwy, Suite 200
Alameda, CA 94501-1091
(510) 337-1023

☒ BY EXPRESS SERVICE CARRIER (Via Overnight Courier Service)

☒ I am readily familiar with the firm's practice for collection and processing of correspondence for delivery by Federal Express: collected packages are picked up by an express carrier representative on the same day, with the Airbill listing the account number for billing to sender, at San Francisco, California, in the ordinary course of business. I placed the envelope(s) in an envelope or package designated by the express service carrier for collection and processing for express service delivery on the above date following ordinary business practices.

☒ Executed on June 13, 2008, at San Francisco, California.

☒ I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the above is true and correct.

☒ I declare that I am employed in the office of a member of the bar of this court at whose direction the service was made.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), and (e), as amended on December 1, 2007:

(c) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The issuing court must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the issuing court for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the issuing court must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to travel more than 100 miles from where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person — except that, subject to Rule 45(c)(3)(B)(iii), the person may be commanded to attend a trial by traveling from any such place within the state where the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the issuing court may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party; or

(iii) a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) CONTEMPT.

The issuing court may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena. A nonparty's failure to obey must be excused if the subpoena purports to require the nonparty to attend or produce at a place outside the limits of Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(ii).

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), and (e), as amended on December 1, 2007:

(c) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The issuing court must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), and (e), as amended on December 1, 2007:

(c) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The issuing court must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the issuing court for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the issuing court must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to travel more than 100 miles from where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person — except that, subject to Rule 45(c)(3)(B)(iii), the person may be commanded to attend a trial by traveling from any such place within the state where the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the issuing court may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party; or

(iii) a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) CONTEMPT.

The issuing court may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena. A nonparty's failure to obey must be excused if the subpoena purports to require the nonparty to attend or produce at a place outside the limits of Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(ii).

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), and (e), as amended on December 1, 2007:

(c) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The issuing court must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the issuing court for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the issuing court must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to travel more than 100 miles from where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person — except that, subject to Rule 45(c)(3)(B)(iii), the person may be commanded to attend a trial by traveling from any such place within the state where the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the issuing court may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party; or

(iii) a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) CONTEMPT.

The issuing court may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena. A nonparty's failure to obey must be excused if the subpoena purports to require the nonparty to attend or produce at a place outside the limits of Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(ii).

Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C & D:
 (C) PROTECTION OF PERSON SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take responsible steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and and reasonable attorney's fees

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect or copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of the party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow for reasonable time for compliance:

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

 (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or
 (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) if a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or
 (ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearances or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When the information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearances or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When the information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), and (e), as amended on December 1, 2007:

(c) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The issuing court must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the issuing court for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the issuing court must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to travel more than 100 miles from where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person — except that, subject to Rule 45(c)(3)(B)(iii), the person may be commanded to attend a trial by traveling from any such place within the state where the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the issuing court may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party; or

(iii) a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) CONTEMPT.

The issuing court may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena. A nonparty's failure to obey must be excused if the subpoena purports to require the nonparty to attend or produce at a place outside the limits of Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(iii).

Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C & D:

(C) PROTECTION OF PERSON SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take responsible steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and and reasonable attorney's fees

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect or copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of the party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow for reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected

matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) if a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearances or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When the information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) CONTEMPT.

The issuing court may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena. A nonparty's failure to obey must be excused if the subpoena purports to require the nonparty to attend or produce at a place outside the limits of Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(iii).

Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C & D:

(C) PROTECTION OF PERSON SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take responsible steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and and reasonable attorney's fees

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect or copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of the party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow for reasonable time for compliance:

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) if a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearances or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When the information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), and (e), as amended on December 1, 2007:

(c) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The issuing court must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the issuing court for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the issuing court must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to travel more than 100 miles from where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person — except that, subject to Rule 45(c)(3)(B)(iii), the person may be commanded to attend a trial by traveling from any such place within the state where the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the issuing court may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party; or

(iii) a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) CONTEMPT.

The issuing court may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena. A nonparty's failure to obey must be excused if the subpoena purports to require the nonparty to attend or produce at a place outside the limits of Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(ii).

Dear Ms. Ridley:

I am writing this letter on behalf of both Bruce W. Smith and Myriam Escamilla. I have received copies of the Notices of Deposition for both Bruce W. Smith and Myriam Escamilla that you served. It is my understanding that you claim that they are not parties to this action. If that is incorrect, please let me know.

If my understanding is correct, then the both Mr. Smith and Ms. Escamilla object to the subpoenas for the following reasons in accordance with Rule 45(c)(2)(B) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Clearly, the deposition subpoenas are an effort to harass both Mr. Smith and Ms. Escamilla, especially in light of the fact that you have noticed their depositions as non-parties.

In any event, given the Fourth of July holiday fast approaching and because of other pre-scheduled commitments, neither Mr. Smith nor Ms. Escamilla are available for the dates notice.

Please contact me at your earliest convenience so that we can discuss this matter.

Sincerely,

Bruce A. Harland

and 5:08-cv-01726

Dear Mr. Harland:

This will respond to your letter of today's date regarding the depositions of Mr. Smith and Ms. Escamilla.

You are incorrect regarding the basis of service. Mr. Smith was served as a party as we understand he is the trustee for Local 715.

Ms. Escamilla was served as a non-party as we understand she is employed by UHW. Ms. Escamilla has repeatedly evaded service including refusing to accept the subpoena at work and arranging to have the subpoena accepted at her home to only to thereafter refuse to accept service of the subpoena. Ms. Escamilla's actions are inappropriate and contrary to law and we will seek redress from the Court if she continues to actively and consciously evade service. As your office apparently represents Ms. Escamilla, we will agree to permit acceptance of the subpoena through your office if you are authorized to accept such service. If not, we will seek redress from the Court for Ms. Escamilla's actions. Please confirm you may accept service of the subpoena on Ms. Escamilla's behalf.

Having said the above, the simple request for a deposition is not harassment, and thus the objections raised to the proceedings are inappropriate both in form and substance.. Indeed, both Mr. Smith and Ms. Escamilla have information regarding the issues related to the existence, representation, and the use of resources of Local 715 which you well know. Mr. Smith is purportedly that entity's trustee, and Ms. Escamilla a representative of UHW assigned to Stanford Hospital & Clinics and Lucile Packard Children's Hospital under the purported servicing agreement with Local 715 as well as the purported trustee's assistant. Moreover, the Court specifically permitted such discovery to take place. Finally, the depositions were specifically set so as to not take place over the July 4th holiday. As there is a filing deadline with the Court of July 18, 2008, we expect both the witnesses to appear at their depositions. If they truly need to reschedule the dates of

Mr. Harland:

I have not yet received a response to my letter of June 23, 2008 regarding the above cases and the depositions of Mr. Smith and Ms. Escamilla. We understand that you are refusing to produce Mr. Smith for his deposition tomorrow. Please immediately provide alternative dates for Mr. Smith and Ms. Escamilla as these depositions must be completed soon given July 18th deadline to file dispositive motions. We would prefer not to have to seek Court intervention in this matter and look forward to resolving it soon. However, we are prepared to file a motion to compel these depositions if we cannot reach an agreement with you. We look forward to your response.

In the meantime, we have received the responses to my clients' request for production/subpoenas from your clients and believe they are insufficient and incomplete. We will address those issues by separate correspondence. However, the responses specifically include objections based upon privilege but no privilege log was provided. Please provide that log immediately. Thank you.

Dear Mr. Inciardi:

I am writing concerning the subpoenas for deposition of Kristy Sermersheim, which you unilaterally scheduled on July 1, 2008. Neither Ms. Sermersheim nor myself is available on July 1 for that proposed deposition. Please contact me at your earliest convenience to discuss possible dates and to discuss the necessity of taking Ms. Sermersheim's deposition. I do not believe that, given the causes of action in this matter, that Ms. Sermersheim has any relevant information for you and am not entirely certain that her deposition is necessary. However, we would like to work with you in good faith to discuss this rather than file an immediate motion to quash. I look forward to discussing this matter further with you.

Dear Ms. Laiacona:

This will respond to your letter of June 26, 2008 regarding the above-referenced matters and the deposition of Kristy Sermersheim. Ms. Sermersheim, as you know, was the executive secretary of SEIU Local 715 and was involved (and gave testimony) regarding the SEIU International's activities concerning the reorganization of the local union entities – including Local 715. Moreover, Ms. Sermersheim is identified in a number of documents regarding this matter. Thus, Ms. Sermersheim not only has relevant information, her testimony goes to the heart of one of the issues being litigated in the case. Thus, we require her deposition to take place. Please provide us with available dates for this proceeding.

We further write to address Local 521's complete failure to properly respond to the subpoena issued to it and produce documents. We have received no documentation from this entity whatsoever. Please confirm that Local 521 will provide a proper response to the subpoena (as noted in Eileen Ridley's letter of June 9, 2008) and will produce documents this week. Failure of Local 521 to do so will result in a motion to compel being failed to obtain the discovery requested.

Very truly yours,

Re: SEIU Local 715
Stanford Hospital & Clinics and Lucille Packard Children's Hospital
U.S. District Court, No. District California, Case No. 07-cv-05158 JF, et al.

Dear Ms. Ridley:

I am writing in response to your letter dated June 9, 2008 concerning the above referenced matter. It is my understanding that this letter is identical to letters which were directed to my co-counsel, Bill Sokol, on behalf of SEIU UHW and Bruce Harland on behalf of SEIU Local 715. Therefore, on behalf of Local 521, I reiterate the position of my prior letter, just as you have restated your position in yours.

It is clear from your letters and other documents that you seek discovery generally concerning the existence of Local 715. As Mr. Sokol said in his letter dated June 13, you obviously have acknowledged expressly that you are acting in bad faith through your client by acknowledging that Local 715 exists, that it represents employees and you have acknowledged that it has a relationship to the other Locals. Your explanation for why this information is necessary rings false. Your insistence that you need this information, in light of your acknowledgment, is an abuse of process, burdensome, harassing and unnecessary and that it just points to the bad faith tactics your client is engaging in by maintaining this litigation.

The fundamental facts of this case are not in dispute. You have acknowledged that SEIU Local 715 exists as an entity and your client is fully aware of its relationship to its sister locals in SEIU. Please cease and desist from this harassing discovery tactic. Thank you for your immediate attention in this matter.

Sincerely,

Andrea Laiacona

Mr. Harland:

I have yet to hear from you regarding the matters discussed below. As the Court has set a date for filing dispositive motions for July 18, 2008 and we have not resolved our pending discovery disputes, will you stipulate to a continuance of the July 18, 2008 deadline? Please provide your response to this question and the issues raised below by Monday, June 30, 2008. Thank you

Mr. Harland:

I have not yet received a response to my letter of June 23, 2008 regarding the above cases and the depositions of Mr. Smith and Ms. Escamilla. We understand that you are refusing to produce Mr. Smith for his deposition tomorrow. Please immediately provide alternative dates for Mr. Smith and Ms. Escamilla as these depositions must be completed soon given July 18th deadline to file dispositive motions. We would prefer not to have to seek Court intervention in this matter and look forward to resolving it soon. However, we are prepared to file a motion to compel these depositions if we cannot reach an agreement with you. We look forward to your response.

In the meantime, we have received the responses to my clients' request for production/subpoenas from your clients and believe they are insufficient and incomplete. We will address those issues by separate correspondence. However, the responses specifically include objections based upon privilege but no privilege log was provided. Please provide that log immediately. Thank you.

I believe the statements made in our motion are accurate. Our case management statement specifically discussed the discovery related to the existence of Local715, the use of its resources and its representative capacity. This was discussed with the Court and it agreed such discovery could take place. In fact, there was no limit on the subjects of discovery whatsoever. Further, given the fact that the uniform response to the discovery served was to object, I believe the description of these responses by your office is accurate.

Having said that, we are hopeful these issues can be resolved without bringing a motion to compel. I think your idea of speaking early next week is a good one in order to facilitate the most complete discussion. I am generally available either July 7 or July 8. I would suggest talking sometime in the afternoon of either day. Let me know what works for you. Thank you.

Eileen,

The purpose of my email was not to start a debate, but simply explain to you why my clients could not agree to continuing the filing date for dispositive motions. Obviously, you and your clients take issue with those reasons.

While I do not think it is necessary to continue the debate, I do wish to address your accusation that everyone that you subpoenaed and our firm has "conduct[ed] a coordinated strategy of stonewalling and refusing to respond to any discovery request . . ." That is simply inaccurate. Moreover, it was completely misleading and inappropriate for you to make such a statement to the Court today in your motion to continue the filing date, as it is not grounded on fact or reality.

It is also inaccurate to suggest that the Court permitted discovery on the "existence of Local 715, its representative capacity and the handling of its resources." I have reviewed the transcript of the scheduling conference, and my understanding is that the Court permitted discovery on a very narrow issue -- that is, whether Local 715 had standing at the arbitration hearing. (See Tr. 7:7-13; 8:21-24; 9:18-23; 10:23-25; 11:1-8, 18-24; 12:1-6.)

Now, turning to the scheduling the meet and confer process, I will be available after noon. However, I do have a meeting tentatively scheduled for sometime in the late afternoon. If you can email times that work for you in the afternoon, I will make every effort to schedule my meeting around the call.

If these times do not work, I would suggest an alternative approach: that we reschedule the telephone conference for early next week, so that I can respond to your July 1, 2008 "meet and confer" letter that you emailed last night. This might help focus the conversation. This will also allow you to enjoy your vacation. If you like this alternate approach, then I would suggest that you give me some times and dates that you can participate in a call next week.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Bruce

Thank you for your email. It is unfortunate that your client has chosen to refuse to stipulate to a continuance of the deadline to file dispositive motions and we will therefore raise the issue with the Court.

There has been no delay in this action by my clients. Once the Court confirmed that discovery could be conducted during the April 25th Case Management Conference we served requests for production and subpoenas within two weeks in all six matters. That is hardly "waiting until the last minute". Your clients and your firm, however, have decided to conduct a coordinated strategy of stonewalling and refusing to respond to any discovery request by either refusing to answer or produce documents, refusing to produce witnesses for deposition (including the trustee of Local 715), and characterizing every discovery request as "harrassment". This is a designed pattern and practice that is contrary to the law and a blatant attempt to prejudice my client regarding the dispositive motions in this case. If there is any delay in this matter it has been caused by your firm's clients and their refusal to properly respond to legal discovery requests (even after being provided with requested extensions).

The discovery propounded by my clients was specifically designed to address the areas the Court permitted to be the subject of discovery - the existence of Local 715, its representative capacity and the handling of its resources. This is not requesting every document held by Local 715 but your comment underscores a major issue regarding the pending discovery - Local 715 has failed to provide complete responses and has further failed to produce responsive documents. Further, we have not noticed "scores" of depositions. We have noticed five depositions of individuals who have direct knowledge of these issues -including the trustee of Local 715 whom you refused to produce. Again, any "delay" is solely due to your clients' conduct.

7/3/2008

That being said, you have indicated you are available to discuss these matters on July 3, 2008. I will be on vacation but will make myself available for a call. What time works for you? Thank you.

Dear Ms. Ridley,

I have talked with my client, Local 715, regarding whether or not it would agree to stipulate to continue the July 18, 2008 filing date for dispositive motions.

Unfortunately, my client does not wish to stipulate to continuing the filing date. The cases pending before Judge Fogel not only involve terminations of employees, but also issues of back pay.

For example, with respect to the petition to vacate that your client filed against the Union, every day of delay means a day that anesthesia techs do not receive the back pay that a neutral arbitrator ruled they are entitled to. The same is true for the petition to confirm that Local 715 filed, involving the termination of Victor Acosta. Further delay just means that Mr. Acosta will have to wait longer to get his job back and the back pay that he is owed, despite the fact that a neutral arbitrator has already determined that your client terminated him without just cause.

Furthermore, the primary reason that it appears that your client needs to continue the July 18, 2008 hearing date is because your client waited to propound 57 requests for documents to multiple parties, and to take depositions of various individuals until the last minute.

All of the requests for documents were extremely overbroad -- both in time and scope -- essentially asking for every single document ever produced by Local 715. And rather than immediately notice a deposition of the person most knowledgeable about Local 715's standing to sue, your client noticed depositions of scores of individuals from Washington D.C. to California for the end of June, just weeks before the fourth of July.

Turning to the scheduling of depositions for Rusty Smith and Myriam Escamilla, Mr. Smith is unavailable until July 14, 15, 16, and 17, 2008.

7/3/2008

As to Ms. Escamilla, you stated in your June 23, 2008 letter that she was noticed as a non-party, or in other words as an employee of SEIU, United Healthcare Workers -- West. First, service of the subpoena was improper, as you served the subpoena to her at the Local 715 address. Second, it is unclear what you need her to testify to, given that you served her as a non-party. Judge Fogel was clear in his instructions: discovery was limited to whether or not Local 715 had standing to sue. Mr. Smith, as the Trustee of Local 715, could certainly be deposed on this matter. As you are already aware, Ms. Escamilla is not available for deposition on July 2, 2008. However, before I offer alternative dates for her deposition, there are various matters we need to discuss, including service of the subpoena and the relevance of her testimony as a non-party.

I am available to meet and confer on July 3, 2008. You can reach me at my office number, 510-337-1001.

www.foley.com

Dear Bruce:

Per our discussion today, I am writing to broadly outline the pending discovery issues with an eye toward resolution of them short of a motion before the Court. This email is part of our conference to resolve these issues.

Preliminarily, you confirmed you had verifications and would be providing those to us which we appreciate. Also, to the extent that any documents are being withheld on privilege grounds, please provide us with a log related to those materials and the grounds for non-production.

As we discussed, my clients are not seeking every document your client has for production. Again, the focus truly is the existence of Local 715, the use of its resources, its representational activities and and its representation by others and legal counsel. As I noted with you, if there are no responsive documents, we certainly recognize that as an answer - we just need to have that position stated and verified by your client. With this in mind, there are essentially four broad areas of concern regarding your client's discovery responses as follows:

Communications:

Our requests seek materials related to communications between Local 715 and the other union entities with which we know Local 715 has communicated regarding its existence, resources, representational services, and representation. The other union entities include the International (where there was clearly communication between 715 and the International regarding the trusteeship of 715 as referenced in Mr. Stern's order regarding the trusteeship), Local 521 (which received information regarding and transfers of Local 715's resources (including dues, receipts, bank accounts, other assets and property and member records), and with agents and representatives of UHW (which had a "Servicing Agreement" with Local 715 purportedly involving matters concerning representational or other activities with respect to, or otherwise relating to, the bargaining unit employees of my clients). There would also be, we believe, communications with Local 1877 and its apparent successor, SEIU Higher Education Workers United Local 2007, regarding representational activities by it on behalf of or in place of Local 715 as regards Stanford University and Santa Clara University. These communications could take the form of letters, memos and e-mails, etc. However, none of these communications have been provided. You noted that some communications may have been oral and we acknowledge that may be the case. Nonetheless, we need a response that there has been a search for such materials and no written responsive documents exist (e.g., Mr. Stern's letter instituting the trusteeship says he is taking such actions due to "reports" he has received - if the reports are in written form they should be produced). I understand you believe there may be some documents (although it may also be the case that some communication was oral). You have agreed to review these requests again with your client and further produce and/or indicate there are no further documents.

Resources:

7/9/2008

The next very broad category concerns resources which includes information regarding the handling of Local 715's funds and dues receipts and other assets. These materials relate directly to the existence of Local 715 and its operational activities. As we discussed, the information regarding dues and accounts has been made public by required reports as well as the fact that information regarding dues retained by Local 715 has been transmitted to Local 521 (who placed that information on its website). You mentioned that there are actual bank accounts presently managed by the trustee on behalf of Local 715 and you would review your client's records regarding this material but would ask that some actions be taken to preserve privacy (e.g., redacting the last four digits of the account). We do want these records for the entire period specified. We are not sure what privacy interest there is in bank accounts of a labor organization as opposed to those of an individual, but we would be agreeable to this procedure preserving privacy so long as the accounts can be clearly identified as being accounts held by Local 715. You agreed to review your clients' records for these materials.

Representation:

We have addressed this issue in correspondence related to the discovery disputes but wanted to follow up on it here as well. We are not asking for communications where counsel for Local 715 is providing legal advice. We are asking for written materials reflecting Local 715's direct retention of counsel (and the identity of that counsel) and/or the use of counsel retained by other union entities (i.e., UHW, Local 521 and/or the International) related to issues concerning Local 715. Again, we are not seeking information regarding legal advice given - just the fact of retention.

Depositions:

Finally, as discussed, we are seeking the depositions of Mr. Smith, Ms. Escamilla and Ms. Semersheim and wish to make those proceedings as efficient as possible. Thus, we want to schedule those depositions to take place after we have received your client's complete production of documents (so we can conclude the proceedings rather than adjourn them pending resolution of discovery disputes).

As your office is also representing UHW and Local 521, the above general descriptions also apply to these entities. Neither of these entities has provide a complete response to the subpoenas served on them nor have they produced any documents (which, of course, is inappropriate given the fact that they clearly have responsive documents - e.g., UHW has the Servicing Agreement with Local 715 and communications related to it while Local 521 at the very least as communications related to the dues and members records it received from Local 715).

Our motion to continue the dispositive motion dates is pending with the Court and, given the existence of additional information to produce, we again ask that your client re-consider its position regarding continuing these dates - a simple stipulation would most likely be appreciated by the Court given the situation. Moreover, we represented to the Court that we will file motions to compel this week if the pending discovery issues cannot be resolved. Consequently, please provide us with responses as soon as possible so that we may determine if such a motion need be filed. Thanks very much.

Eileen
